CHIEFTAIN FARM BLDGS.

Chieftain Farm Buildings are an excellent investment for any farmer. What's more, as the need arises your equipment can easily be moved out, and the building used for treating, cleaning or temporary storage of grain. You can be sure a Chieftain Post-Free Farm Building will give you the utmost in storage space at minimum cost.

UTILITY ARCH RAFTER BUILDING

This Chieftain building provides plenty of useable space and gives you a clear unobstructed, post-free floor area. Lots of space for large equipment down the centre - small tools, implements along the sides. Large sliding doors (16' x 10' opening) simplify movement of machinery in and out of building. Because each half-span arch combines wall and roof together, maximum strength is obtained through the use of the least quantity of material and shortest assembly time. The result is a most efficient farm storage building built at reasonable cost. They are available in any length you desire and up to 60 feet in width.

For example: The modern 40' x 60' building illustrated above provides 2400 sq. ft. of useable floor space under its arched roof, and is approximately 20' high to the roof ridge. Ample room for all your requirements.

EIGHTY-FIFTH ANNUAL FAIR

THEME
OUR INHERITANCE

Pride in past years

Faith in years to come

Our Centennial Project has been the building of a cairn to honour those who contributed towards the first shipment of grain from Springfield Municipality, pictured on our cover, of this year's prize list.

The cairn will be unveiled at 2 o'clock on Fair day which is Saturday, July 29.

THE STORY OF THE FIRST SHIPMENT

There was a very serious failure of the spring wheat crop in the province of Ontario in 1876, the hardy Fyfe Wheat, which had been the chief standby for many years, was almost worthless, apparently having lost its vigor and would no longer yield a profitable crop. The fame of the Red River Valley wheat was already spreading and it was decided by his company that R. C. Steele, founder of the firm of Steele, Briggs Seed Co., Limited, now of Toronto, Hamilton, Winnipeg and Regina, should go to Manitoba and procure, if possible, 5,000 bushels of her finest wheat for seed in Ontario.

The journey was made via St. Paul to Fisher's Landing, Minn., the end of the railway at that time. His through ticket for balance of the trip was by steamer to Winnipeg, which took from two to three days, and fearing that the river would freeze up before the wheat could be secured and brought down to the railway, Mr. Steele abandoned his steamboat ticket, hired a lumber wagon, the only conveyance available, and drove 13 miles across the country to Grand Forks, Dakota, arriving there at 6 o'clock in the evening, and reaching Winnipeg at 12 o'clock the next night, the journey of 150 miles having occupied thirty hours' continuous riding.

Upon making known to the merchants of Winnipeg that the object of his visit was to secure some of their famous wheat for shipment to Toronto for seed, every assistance possible was rendered by the business men of the town, captained by David Young, of the firm of Higgins, Young & Peebles, as all were anxious to have a hand in the first shipment of wheat from Manitoba, the outlook even then being such that it would be an event to talk about in after years. The early close of navigation left little time for securing the wheat, and as threshing machines and fanning mills were few and far between in Manitoba in those days, of the amount stated above 857½ bushels was all the choice wheat that could be secured in time for the last steamer leaving Winnipeg before the close of navigation, and within 48 hours after the steamer with this wheat on board reached Fisher's Landing, the Red River was frozen over and navigation closed for the winter. From Fisher's Landing the wheat was shipped by rail to Duluth, together with 4,000 bushels more selected wheat purchased in Northern Minnesota. From Duluth shipment was made by vessel to Sarnia and then by rail to Toronto.

Mr. Ed Milne

Mr. Ed Milne, an Honorary Director of the Springfield Agricultural Society is one of our oldest members. He has served as Director for about 50 years.

He was born at Dugald March 18, 1883, and went to school there. Later he farmed about 3½ miles from the village retiring to Oakbank in 1946.

Now he is an honorary member of the Co-op and a member of the Farm Bureau. He sells Co-op Insurance and enjoys meeting people in this way.

POINTS CONSIDERED IN JUDGING BAKING

It is impossible with the number of judges provided at a rural fair to have the Exhibits scored. The points listed are intended to show the exhibitor the relative importance of the qualities looked for when judging, and to serve as a guide for the judge on which to base her decisions.

FOODS

BISCUITS — Plain tea biscuits without currants, peel, etc.

Points

- 25 Appearance— Color, even golden brown, no spots, free from surface flour.
Size, uniform, 1¼" side by 2" diameter gives an attractive biscuit.
Shape, evenly risen vertical sides, level top.
- 30 Texture— Grain even, light for size, fluffy. Flaky; will peel off into long thin strips, this gives extreme lightness.
- 5 Crust— Tender; natural crust best for exhibition purposes, no coating of egg or milk.
- 40 Flavor— Appetizing; biscuits frequently have a flat taste.

BREAD AND BUNS — Brown bread is judged by the same points as white. It should contain a reasonable amount of bran, whole wheat or graham flour, and may or may not contain molasses.

Points

- 15 Appearance— Individual loaf baked in a rectangular pan approximately 9" x 5" x 3" or a 1 pound to 2 pound loaf.
Color of baking, even, golden brown, top and bottom.
- 10 Crust— Depth, about ¾".
Crispness, tender yet crisp, free from cracks; natural crust required.
- 35 Crumb— Color, even and creamy, not streaky.
Grain, small even cells.
Lightness, light for size.
Elasticity, springy.
Moisture, normal.
- 40 Flavor— Odor, sweet and free from yeasty smell.
Taste, sweet, nutty flavor.

CAKE — If icing is used, cake filling and icing are considered together. Sponge cake and angel cake should be baked in a tube pan and should not be iced. Gingerbread should not be iced.

Points

- 35 Appearance— Shape, evenly risen.
Size, convenient for use.
Baking, even, golden brown, tender crust.
Appearance of frosting, creamy, not necessarily a smooth surface.

Baking (continued)

- 40 Crumb— Color, even throughout.
Texture, fine, even grain.
Quality, tender, light, springy.
Moisture, not too dry.
- 15 Flavor— Cake and icing.
- 10 Frosting— Texture, well beaten, smooth, not granular to taste.

N.B.: Icing and frosting are the same.

White cake has no egg yolk — just egg whites.

Creamy or gold cake has egg yolks.

COOKIES — Small cakes are judged similarly to cookies. The shape is determined by baking in individual pans or baking and then cutting into shape.

In stating the requirements for shortbread specify either a 5" size or individual.

Points

- 25 Appearance— Size and shape, uniform.
Thin cookies should be crisp.
- 30 Texture— Tender with richness.
- 10 Thickness— To suit the mixture
Baking, even color, free from surface flour.

35 Flavor—

FRUIT CAKE — A three-pound fruit cake is suggested for exhibit purposes.

Points

- 30 Appearance— Shape, evenly risen.
Size, depth of an average fruit cake tin.
Baking, even baking throughout, even color, and tender crust.
- 35 Texture and Quality— Proportion of fruit to mixture; sufficient mixture to hold fruit together. Light fruit cakes may have less fruit.
Texture, and quality, even and tender.
Moisture, moist but not wet.
- 35 Flavor— Should be a blended flavor.

N.B.: Light fruit cake contains no spices, molasses or brown sugar.

Light fruit cake contains less fruit.

Fruits and Preserves

POINTS CONSIDERED IN JUDGING

CANNING—Fruit is cooked in a liquid, either water or syrup, made from sugar and water. It may be cooked by the open kettle or the closed jar method. The latter is the more common.

In judging canned products, if the seal is not perfect the jar should be disqualified and so marked on the entry slip.

If the contents of a jar appear questionable, the jar may be opened.

Meat should be cooled with the jar standing right side up, as the fat provides a seal for the jar.

Pts.

- 55 Appearance: (a) Condition of finished product. Original shape. Natural color. Free from blemishes or spots.
(b) Liquid: Clear, free from cloudiness or sediment. Proportion of liquid to solid in finished product. Fruit, one-third liquid and two-thirds solid.
- 30 Pack — Size of pieces of food: uniform and convenient to use. Packing: attractive, no waste space.
- 10 Container — Clean and free from surface soil; appropriate in size and type.
- 5 Label — Small, neat, visible. Name and date. Uniformity in labelling collections.

JAMS and MARMALADES

Jams are usually made from small fruits. The whole fruit is cooked with sugar to a desired consistency which should be jelly-like but soft and easy to spread. The color should be bright and the texture relatively uniform. As a rule, jars contain but one kind of fruit. The flavor should be characteristic of the fruit.

Marmalades are made from pulp and juice, or entire fruits shredded or cut in small pieces. The consistency should be jam-like or jelly-like. Single fruit may be used, but often, two or more are blended.

Pts.

- 15 Appearance — Color.
- 30 Textures — Size of fruit. Thickness of product.
- 30 Flavor.
- 5 Container — Clean, suitable and not too large.
- 5 Seal — Thin layer of wax and a cover of metal or paper.
- 5 Label.

JELLIES

Jelly is the product of fruit juice entirely free from peel, cooked with sugar until it sets when cold. The texture should be uniform and free from suspended matter or particles. It should be tender, easily cut, leaving clear shining faces and sharp angles. It should retain its shape when removed from the container, and should quiver, but not shake, when disturbed. It should not be gummy, syrupy, sticky or rubbery. The flavor should be characteristic of the fruit.

Pts.

- 25 Appearance — Color: natural. Clearness: clear, sparkling.
- 40 Texture — Hold its shape without being solid. Smooth, shiny cut edge.
- 20 Flavor — Natural flavor of fruit.
- 5 Container — Clean, suitable, not too large.
- 5 Seal — Thin layer of wax and a cover of metal or paper.
- 5 Label — Small, neat, with name of fruit.

PICKLES, RELISHES and CATSUPS

Pickles are large pieces of whole fruit or vegetables in a clear or mustard dressing. The preservatives used are vinegar, salt, sugar and spices.

Relishes are made of the same materials but all ingredients are chopped finely.

Catsup is a strained product containing the same types of ingredients as above.

Pts.

- 25 Appearance — Color. Size. Choice and proportion of ingredients.
- 30 Texture.
- 30 Flavor — No one flavor too pronounced, a pleasant blend.
- 5 Container.
- 5 Seal.
- 5 Label.
